Eight Trees Must Go

AnnexPlanDrawn

Contract Letting Slated In January

Randall County court house lawn will lose eight of its controversial trees to make way for a new court house annex.

Architect Russell Megert Monday told commissioners court that it will be necessary to remove eight of the trees.

For almost a decade a verbal battle has been carried on between a Canyon group wanting to retain the trees and a group which wanted to cut them down to provide more parking space.

Apparently both factions have lost. The trees will be removed but no extra parking space will be provided, Megert said.

Megert said plans for the new two-story, $400,000 annex already have been drawn and specifications are being completed. Bids on the project will be opened Jan. 8 and a contract could be let as early as Jan. 12.

The construction is being financed with warrants. Under this method of financing, a referendum is not necessary unless the commissioners court is presented with a petition bearing the names of 10 percent of the county's voters asking for an election. In this event, a bond election would be necessary to finance the building.

"I've seen that happen only once in 17 years," said Bob Davis of Colombian Securities.

Commissioners Monday voted to set up warrants for a 15-year schedule and not to exceed $400,000. The warrants will bear 5 percent interest.

Commissioners voted to ask the city of Canyon to make a feasibility study on furnishing sewer services to the new annex building from the Third and Fourth Street Alley to the northeast corner of the court house property.

The new annex building is to be erected just north of the present court house building.

Commissioners agreed to pay a third of the cost of remodeling a rehabilitation center at 1900 West Third in Amarillo. Cost of the remodeling is not to exceed $2000 and Potter County has agreed to pay two thirds of that cost.

The center will be operated by the Texas Education Agency and the Texas Department of Public Welfare.

Appearing before Randall County commissioners to make the request for funds for the remodeling were Lowell Munday and Louise Evans, both of

Most Stores Closed Today

A majority of Canyon business establishments will be closed today, Thursday, in observance of Thanksgiving, according to Roland Black, manager of the local Chamber of Commerce.

Offices in City Hall, Randall County Courthouse and the US Post office will also be closed today.

Classes at West Texas State University and the Canyon Independent School District that were dismissed Wednesday for the holidays will resume Monday.

Examine Policy On City Curbing

An examination of Canyon's curb and gutter policy by traffic and engineering experts was instigated through action Monday by the City Commission.

R. O. Sisk, owner of Su-Roca Apartments, requested a deviation from the current policy of stand-up curb and gutter at 2710 10th Ave., but action was tabled by the commission pending the investigation.

Sisk proposed that a portion of 10th Ave. curb be knocked out to allow for the lay-down curbing, but Mayor Paul Lindsey suggested that City Engineer Bill McMorries and a traffic expert from Amarillo be employed to study the matter.

"If we stray from our policy, we need experts," the mayor declared.

Commissioner Tom Foster said he wanted to determine which type curbing was the most safe and Mayor Pro-tem H. R. Fulton, Jr., questioned any deviation from present policy because "we have turned down several such plans."

City Manager Paul Davis suggested that commissioners study the possibility of requiring that parking areas be included in plot plans.

Sisk also requested that 28th Street be paved this winter, but Davis said McMorries had recommended that no such action be taken until spring.

In other commission action, city dads considered the pur-

Addressing Important Says PM

Postmaster Lee Roy Moreland today urged the citizens of Canyon and the surrounding area to be sure to use the correct address on their letters and packages going to servicemen overseas to avoid serious delays in delivery.

Postmaster Moreland reported that millions of letters and packages going overseas have been delayed because they were insufficiently addressed. He said that one of the biggest problems has been the failure of persons to include the very important 5 digit APO or FPO number in military address. Mail not containing this number is incorrectly addressed.

He said that last year more than 9 million pieces of mail were delayed in delivery. Of this number, 3 1/2 million pieces failed to include the complete 5 digit APO or FPO number in the address. This improperly addressed mail had to be sent to a military locator directory where time-consuming searches were made to determine the proper address.

"As the Christmas mail volume going overseas is expected to increase up to 30 per cent or over 4 million pounds above last year, every pre-

Youth Has Leukemia

Russell Haberman, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sterling of Canyon, is hospitalized at Wadley Hospital in Dallas for treatment of leukemia.

The youngster was found to have leukemia only days ago.

Canyon citizens turned out Tuesday at Coffee Memorial Blood Bank, 306 17th St. in Canyon, to donate 8 pints of blood for the youngster. Additional blood donations will be taken Tuesday, Nov. 28, and Friday, Dec. 1, between the hours of 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Canyon Jaycees are also collecting funds for the youth's hospitalization and care. Donations may be made to the Russell Haberman Fund at the First National Bank or presented to any member of the local civic club.

Board OKs Investment In US Treasury Notes

Canyon school board Tuesday night gave Supt. Jerry Jacobs authority to invest surplus school money in treasury notes after Jacobs explained that the school could realize an extra $2,500 to $3,000 by doing so.

Jacobs told the board that US Treasury notes would yield from 5 to 5.3 percent interest while school certificates of deposit at Canyon First National Bank, school depository, yield a maximum of 4 percent.

"My feeling is that if government securities will net us more than certificates of deposit then it will be to our advantage to take whichever is greater," said Wesley Cox, school board president.

Jerry LaGrone, who opposed the move, said bids were taken for a depository and that the contract was awarded to First National Bank. He said that the possibility of investing in Treasury notes should have been made clear to the bidders at the time bids were taken.

"We might not get any bids next time," LaGrone declared. "I'm sure that if either bank had been aware of this possibility when they bid, it might have altered their bid."

"I think the taxpaying public expects us to get all the interest we can out of their money," said Board Member Joe Gill.

"I'm certainly for getting the biggest return," said Bill Davis.

Motion to authorize investing in Treasury notes was made by Gill and seconded by Harold Erwin. LaGrone cast the only dissenting vote. Board Member J. O. Parker was not present for Tuesday night's meeting.

"As members of the community we certainly would support the actions of the school board," said Bill Adams, president of First National Bank. "We will abide by what the board chooses to do."

Foundation Aids Building

A contract was signed Tuesday by members of the Canyon Industrial Foundation, Inc. providing L. R. Dobbs, owner of the Dobbs Corporation, about $20,000 to rebuild his industry that was destroyed in a tornado here in July.

Under the terms of the contract, the foundation will own the building Dobbs will use for 15 years on a lease-purchase agreement.

Dobbs, who manufactures tail water recovery pumps, was on hand along with Joe Gidden, president of the foundation, when contracts were signed Tuesday.

Cost of the building, land, fence and parking area will be about $20,000, said Ronald Logan, sales representative for Floyd W. Richards, contractor from Amarillo who will construct the building.

Construction on the building that will begin in the next few days, should be completed in about seven weeks, Logan stated. The pre-engineered steel structure will be located

Fourth For Buffs

WT To Little Rose Bowl

BY JON LOW

For the fourth time in West Texas State's 57-year football history, the Buffaloes have been named to play in a post season bowl game. West Texas State will play in the Junior Rose Bowl game in Pasadena, Cal., on Saturday, Dec. 2.

Their opponent will be San Fernando Valley State College, one of the outstanding passing teams of the West Coast.

West Texas State officials were notified late Monday that they had been selected as the visiting team in the game that will for the first time pit a representative of the California Collegiate Athletic Association against a major NCAA team from over the nation.

Head Coach Joe Kerbel had met with his team Monday afternoon and the squad voted unanimously to accept the invitation, if it were offered.

The Junior Rose Bowl was started in 1946 as a playoff for the best two junior colleges in the nation, and that arrangement continued through last year. This year it was decided for a member of the CCAA to meet one of the nation's outstanding major NCAA teams in the game.

With an average attendance of 45,000, the Junior Rose Bowl is the fifth best drawing card among all the nation's annual bowl games. Pasadena's famed Rose Bowl stadium is the site of the clash.

San Fernando Valley State, a slick passing team, possesses a truly outstanding passer in quarterback Bruce Limmerman, a 6-2, 190-pounder who has fired 27 touchdown passes this year. Limmerman has completed 122 of 269 passes for 1760 yards and has run for 362 more.

Limmerman's favorite targets are ends Dick Billingsley and Jerry Peters. Billingsley has 11 scoring receptions this year, and has caught 43 passes for 516 yards. Peters has romped for 704 yards and six touchdowns on 49 receptions.

Fullback Mike Vogel heads up the ground game with 573 yards rushing this season.

West Texas owns a dangerous passing attack, built around the sensational receiving of split end Dave Szymakowski and flanker Charles Henderson, but can rely on an overwhelming ground attack. Halfback Eugene Morris has rushed for 1273 yards, second in the nation. The Buff fullback duo of Duane Thomas and Albie Owens has produced 1081 yards.

The teams have had no common opponents. The University of Texas at Arlington, the Buff's homecoming opponent this year, was hard pressed to defeat Los Angeles State 17-14, a team San Fernando blasted 42-6. The Buffs dumped Arlington 37-27.

West Texas State has never lost a bowl game in three previous trips. The school's last bowl trip was by another Kerbel team, and resulted in a 15-14 Sun Bowl win over Ohio University in 1962.

BOWL BOUND! Coach Joe Kerbel's West Texas State Buffaloes have been named to play in the Junior Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Cal., on Dec. 2. West Texas posted a 7-3 record and is among the most impressive offensive teams in the nation. Their opponent, San Fernando Valley State, enjoyed a 6-3-1 season and is an outstanding passing team. This is Kerbel's second bowl berth since coming to West Texas State. Only four teams in Buff History have had a better record than this year's team.

Forty some years ago I was viciously "clipped" from behind in a football game. Through the years as I have seen people "clip" others from behind figuratively I recall that literal experience.

Hazlewood On Committees

Senator Grady Hazlewood of Canyon was appointed this week by Lt. Gov. Preston Smith to serve on two committees, both of which involve traffic.

The two committees on which Hazlewood is to serve are the special Parking and Traffic Committee and the Joint Interim Highway Safety Committee. Both groups were created this year in the 60th session of the Texas Legislature.

Under terms of the resolution creating the Joint Interim Highway Safety Committee, reports will be made to the 61st Legislature and to the Texas Highway Department in 1969.

Cooperating with the special Parking and Traffic Committee will be the State Board of Control, State Building Commission and THD.

by Troy Martin FROM THE CANYON RIM

I was a little disappointed that Governor John Connally decided to write his version of the assassination of John F. Kennedy.

I have always admired Connally because he did not use his role in the tragic incident for political gain. I cannot see that what he has now written for Life Magazine has shed much additional light on the subject. So far 47 books have been written on the assassination.

Some tend to confirm the Warren Commission report that a single killer snuffed out the life of John Fitzgerald Kennedy while others say there were several involved. A state prosecutor in New Orleans contends that there was a conspiracy to kill the President.

At least Connally confirms something that had been whispered for four years. Ralph Yarborough did refuse to ride with Lyndon Johnson from the Dallas airport until President Kennedy told the senior senator either to ride with the vice president or walk.

Connally says Kennedy did not come to Texas to patch a Johnson-Yarborough rift. "The President couldn't have settled it," Connally says. "The quarrel is implacable."

It is going to be interesting to see the attitude of Lyndon Johnson if Ralph Yarborough seeks the Democratic nomination for governor next year.

George Bush will gleefully oppose Yarborough next November if the ultra-liberal senator is the standard bearer for the Democrats next fall.

Bush, running with a Goldwater millstone around his neck in 1964, was beaten by Yarborough for the senate. Bush admits that he would like to rub out that defeat by repaying Yarborough in kind at the polls next November.

Bush, who went on to win a seat in Congress last year on the GOP ticket from Houston, says he is studying the possibility of seeking the governor's chair. In Amarillo last Friday night, Bush had nothing but praise for Governor Connally. He said he thinks Connally has made a good governor.

"Naturally, when he announced that he would not run again, I began to do some thinking," Bush declared. "I have not decided. I like Congress."

Do we have too many subdivisions of local government?

I agree with Author Franklin H. Ornstein who declares in an article in The Saturday Evening Post that this is the case.

Here in Randall County we must have at least a half dozen overlapping subdivisions of government. For instance, we have at least seven different sets of law enforcement officers in the county.

Among these are university security police, Canyon city police, sheriff's officers, Texas Rangers, game warden, Amarillo police and highway patrol. Then we have federal enforcement officers with jurisdiction in the county.

If local government is going to survive, we've got to consolidate and streamline. I seriously doubt that we will and what has been local governing bodies may soon become mere dispensers of federal aid with no real authority, the authority that they once had having gone to Washington. It's our own fault.

I never look at a society page with the pictures of all the brides and prospective brides that I do not wonder what the boy looks like.

I don't see why more pictures of grooms aren't run in the paper.

Merchants Get Student Reaction

A group of West Texas State University students last Thursday made several recomendations to Canyon merchants at a joint meeting of merchants and members of the WT student Senate.

Students want merchants to let students know of the availability of merchandise here.

More student directed advertising was urged and students would like to see a directory made concerning what merchandise is available and where it can be found.

The students would like to see a student-directed promotion by local merchants. They suggested a WT day or a WT night when special incentives would be offered student shoppers.

Merchants were told that students would like to see more WT students hired by local businesses. The students would also like to see a student hang out established, a place where the students could get together and drink coffee and visit.

Spokesman for the student group was Jim Holston, president of the student Senate. Jimmy Dale Killingsworth was spokesman for the merchants group.

"We at least established a line of communications between the students and the merchants," declared Killingsworth. Killingsworth said another meeting will be held at a later date. He expressed hope that a better representation of both merchants and students would be available for the next meeting.

Crop Team Gets Fourth

On the WTSU squad was Jim Crownover of Claude, Kenneth Ferguson of McCaulley, and Carrol and Harrol Redwine, both of Lazbuddie.

THREE MEMBERS of Boy Scout Troop 66 were invested with Eagle rank Monday night in ceremonies at First Christian Church. They are from left, Jay Bryan, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. Manly Bryan; Ben Peckenpaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peckenpaugh; and David Low, son of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Low. The troop is sponsored by the church.

Three Boys Awarded Eagle Rank Monday

Three members of Canyon Boy Scout Troop 66 were awarded Eagle Scout rank Monday night in ceremonies at First Christian Church.

They are David Low, son of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Low; Ben Peckenpaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peckenpaugh; and Jay Bryan, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. Manly Bryan.

Presentation of the award to Bryan was made by Andy Moreland and Dr. W. J. Wooten presented the Eagle to Peckenpaugh and Low.

David Low is 13 years old and is rated as an excellent student in the ninth grade at Canyon Junior High School.

He entered scouts in 1964 and the same year received his Tenderfoot Rank. He was made a second Class Scout, six months later and received his First Class rank in August of 1965. He received his Star Rank in February of 1966.

He advanced to Life rank in the fall of 1966 and holds the God and Country Award in scouting. He spent 65 days and nights in camping and holds 21 merit badges.

He went on three ski trips and attended Philmont Scout Ranch in New Mexico last summer. There he was awarded the junior leaders and instructors training badge.

David has gone to Possum Kingdom with the scout troop and formed and named the Gazelle Patrol of Troop 66.

He has been vice president, secretary and president of Sunday school and training union classes at Canyon First Baptist Church, where he is a member.

Memorial Fund Meeting Held

About $5,000 has been solicited thus far for a Milton and Katherine Morris Memorial Fund for the Opportunity Plan at West Texas State University, according to Dr. J. A. Hill, chairman of the project.

Morris is head of the plan, a student finance method through which deserving students are given financial assistance while in school.

Goal for the overall project was set last month at $25,000.

Following a project meeting last week, Dr. Hill said only a few area towns had been canvassed thus far, but more would be contacted this month. Hundreds of letters to individuals and service organizations have been mailed he explained.

Among those attending the meeting last week were Harvey Allen of Amarillo and Mrs. Alice Smith of McLean. Both are board members of the Opportunity Plan.

The Opportunity Plan now finances area students in schools other than WTSU, although the finance offices are in the university Administration Building.

Dr. Hill said Canyon has not yet been canvassed.

Safety Inspection Slated For Bicycles

A safety inspection day for bicycles owned by Rex Reeves Elementary School students will be conducted Nov. 30, according to Jim Martin, chairman of the PTA-sponsored project.

Along with members of the PTA, Canyon Police Chief L. D. Caldwell will conduct the bike inspection that begins with the first physical education class at the school.

Plans are being formulated whereby each bicycle will be inspected and a license affixed for a charge of 35 cents, Martin explained.

The program, kicked off last week with the presentation of two safety films presented by Ed Richards, safety officer for the Department of Public Safety, will be year-round. Bicycle registration and records will be on file with the Randall County Sheriff's Department, which has offered cooperation on the project.

A student court will be established in the school to encourage and promote safe handling of bicycles. While the court will discuss bike safety violations, it will not mete out punishment to violators. Also planned is an art and essay contest promoting bicycle safety among Canyon youths.

in the western edge of Canyon's city limits. The new building will have 5,000 as compared to 4,000 square feet in the struture that was destroyed by the tornado.

Following the tornado that scattered debris from the Dobbs Corporation for a quarter of a mile, Dobbs was forced to move his business to Amarillo because of lack of facilities here.

Dobbs said his business would be expanded due to the foundation assistance and that probably extra workers would be employed.

Also on hand for the signing of the contracts Tuesday was Bill Davis and Bill Adams, members of the foundation.

caution should be taken by friends and relatives of servicemen to address their letters and packages properly to assure rapid delivery to its destination, Postmaster Moreland said.

There are four essential elements to an overseas military address.

1. The serviceman's identity-grade, full name, and service number.
2. His military unit-complete.
3. Gateway post office-New York, San Francisco or Seattle.
4. APO or FPO - a 5 digit number.

When any of these elements is missing, the letter or package will be delayed in delivery.

chase of land in the southeastern section of Canyon for expansion of the sewer plant, but no formal action was taken.

Davis reported that George Roots, who owns most of the area near the plant, was asking from $680 to $1000 per acre for different tracts of land.

McMorries had earlier told commissioners that present facilities were grossly inadequate and suggested four plans that might be followed, ranging in cost from almost one-quarter to one-half million dollars.

Commissioners said they would later consider which plan to follow in expanding the sewer treatment facility.

The possibility of eliminating a policy whereby volunteer firemen are given 12,000 gallons of free water and free sewer and trash collection was considered, but no action was taken. Davis said he would meet with the volunteers to determine if they would prefer monetary compensation monthly instead of the free services.

Bondsmen and auditors for the city have recommended that no water be given away.

Action was taken that would delete from the Oct. 2 and Oct. 5 minutes authorization for a $562.50 per month subsidy of the LaGrone Ambulance business.

McMorries will work with an Amarillo architectural firm to determine the best means of connecting city sewer lines to an addition to the Randall County Courthouse.

Dr. Willis Harrison, Canyon dentist, was given permission by the commission to place a "National Dental Health Week" banner near the city's square.

Amarillo. They represented the rehabilitation committee of the Amarillo Area Foundation.

Munday told commissioners that the center would be used to train people on welfare rolls and said it would be modeled after a rehabilitation center in San Antonio. He noted that the San Antonio center had succeeded in returning to self-supporting status 38 percent of the people on dole there.

Miss Evans said there is a good chance that the federal poverty program group also might participate in operation of the center.

Gordon Hansen, director of the federal wildlife refuge at Buffalo Lake, presented Randall County a check for $4,980.66 from the US Bureau of Sports Fisheries and Wildlife. Hansen said the payment was made under the refuge revenue sharing act in lieu of taxes. The money is to be used for schools and roads, Hansen explained.

Five percent of the money must be paid to public schools in Randall County.

Commissioners took no action on a request that county offices be closed both Thursday and Friday for Thanksgiving. Offices will be closed Thursday but will be open Friday.

The court denied a request by County Clerk Leroy Hutton that the county pay his expenses to a vital statistics seminar in Austin Nov. 27 and 28.

Commissioner Bill Butler voted to allow Hutton to go but Commissioners Glenn Dowlen, Clarence Beckman and B. R. Jones voted against the request.

Hutton then announced that he would take his vacation and go at his own expense.

The court accepted a bid of $556 by Steck Company to supply four sets of indices for the county clerk's office. A bid from another firm at $456 was previously accepted but then was rejected when that company said it had a mistake and sought to up its bid by $100.

The board also authorized the superintendent to consolidate school bank accounts. Jacobs told the board that the school now has 22 bank accounts and that he feels that this number can be reduced by 9 or 10.

He said this would result in a saving in time and money to the school.

Board members approved the hiring of Mrs. Jackie Brewster as homemaking, art and social studies teacher. Mrs. Brewster holds a degree from West Texas State University and has had 6 years of teaching experience at Irving.

Fourteen faculty members were appointed to the school textbook committee with Jacobs to serve as chairman.

Jacobs told the board that an effort is being made to give more students an opportunity to participate in interschool athletics.

For the second time in as many meetings, the board went into executive session to discuss acquisition of school sites.

Eagles To Open With Plainview

Coach Tom Buchanan's Canyon Eagles open their 1967-68 basketball season against the Plainview Bulldogs Friday evening in Plainview. The varsity clash is slated for 7:30 p.m., following a 'B' team game between the two schools at 6 p.m.

"We lack height and experience," revealed Buchanan, "but this is as good a group of scrappers and hustlers as I've ever had. They should be an exciting team to watch."

Expected to open for the Eagles are 6-1 Steve Butler at center, 5-11 Jackie Thrasher and 5-11 Robert Olsen at forwards, and 5-8 Galen Davis and another player yet to be decided upon at guards.

Not a tall team by any means with only two players over six feet, Canyon will rely on a shuffling offense and a hard pressing defense this season.

"This will be the toughest but the best schedule we've had since I've been here," stated Buchanan. "Our whole district looks extremely tough, and we face some rugged competition in our tournaments, but we feel this will help us to be a better ball club."

The Eagles have had two scrimmages with other schools, and have looked good in spots, according to the coach. "Defensively we look good for this early in the season," said Buchanan.

The Canyon 'B' team will also have an improved schedule, and will play over 20 games this season.

Making up the 12-man Eagle varsity roster are Butler and 6-2 Bob Gruner at center, Olsen, Thrasher, 6-0 Alan Hicks, 5-9 Andy Moreland, and 6-0 Bill Szydloski at forwards, and guards Davis, 5-8 Lon Conner, 5-9 Chris Gerald, 5-6 Kyle Sunderman, and 5-8 Billy Swain.

Wichita Shocks WT Buffs 22-13

The Wichita State Shockers upset the West Texas State Buffaloes 22-13 in Wichita, Kans., Saturday afternoon behind a surprising running game led by sophomore Walter Lee.

The Shockers, known as a passing team throughout the season, turned Lee loose with the ball an incredible 53 times for 204 yards as they came from behind to jolt the Buffaloes. It was Wichita's second win of the season against seven losses and one tie. WT is 7-3.

West Texas State's Eugene Morris slashed and dashed for 168 yards and established a new school record for yards rushing in one season. Morris ended the season with 1273 yards. The old record was 1203 by Charles Wright in 1950.

Curley Watters set a school record for kickoff return yardage in one season with 500 yards.

West Texas had geared its defensive plans to halt the passing of John Eckman, the nation's leading passer in 1966, but the Shocker pitcher threw only eight times, connecting on four for 38 yards.

Wichita State scored first in the opening period on a 35 yard field goal by Troy Anderson, not to be confused with the Buff defensive back of the same name.

A 56-yard dash by Morris quickly sent the Buffs in front but Tommy Fambrough's kick was blocked, allowing another field goal by Anderson to tie the score in the second quarter at 6-6. Anderson's second boot was a 43 yarder, a WSU school record.

A sneak from the one by quarterback Roy Winters gave West Texas a 13-6 halftime lead, but the Herd was never able to score again. Fambrough converted this time, his 31st in 33 attempts this season, falling just short of the school mark of 34 conversions by Charlie Williams in 1961.

In the second half Lee brought the Shockers even and then sent them ahead on scoring runs of one and five yards. Anderson kicked the point after both times, and then closed out the scoring with a 39 yard field goal.

In the drive that tied the score in the third period, the Shockers twice had to gamble on fourth down, and were successful both times.

The Buffs had their scoring chances but were unable to tally in the second half. West Texas was troubled by fumbles, particularly on a first and goal at the WSU one where a prime threat was killed. The Buffs lost three fumbles and two interceptions in all.

Wichita outdid the Buffaloes in first downs 19-14, and in rushing 237-212. West Texas led in passing yardage 103-38 and in total yardage 315-275.

Morris entered the game second nationally in rushing behind O. J. Simpson of Southern Cal., and picked up 168 yards. Simpson, however, had an equally good day against UCLA and protected his lead.

Winters, among the national leaders in total offense, completed eight of 20 passes for 103 yards. Steve Haterius failed to intercept any Shocker passes to boost his national lead in the category, but it was obvious that his very presence discouraged the Shockers from throwing and caused them to turn to a running game.

CHS Girls Play Vega

Canyon High School's girls basketball team opened the season with a pair of doubleheaders against Vega, with different results. Two varsity girls lost both their games, but the 'B' girls won a pair.

The Canyon varsity lost 44-37 in Vega and fell 48-31 in Canyon. Forward Pam Richardson flipped in 23 points in the Vega clash, high for both teams. A 13 point final quarter, the highest for either team, failed to catch the winners. Guards Gayle Swatzell and Beverly Brown were outstanding in the home loss.

The Canyon 'B' girls are off to a good start with 24-19 and 25-14 wins over their Vega counterparts. Forward Pinky Woodward led the scoring in each game, tallying 12 in the first game and 13 in the second. Guard Cindy Jones led the defensive work. Coach Bob Schneider expressed satisfaction in a "good team effort from everyone."

EAGLE TACKLERS combining to stop Tulia's Jackie Gunnels (22) are Lon Conner (10), Jim McBroom (15) and Gary Gilbert (30). The Hornets blitzed Canyon 60-0 and dropped the Eagles into fifth place in District 1-AAA.

Vega Rips Cowboys For Crown

A spirited fourth quarter rally by the Happy Cowboys fell short as the Vega Longhorns clinched a 29-20 victory and the District 1-B championship in Happy Friday night.

Jumping from a 22-6 deficit to score twice in the final period, Happy trailed only 22-20 until Vega scored a clinching touchdown with 19 seconds left in the game.

Zeke Frost, who led the Cowboy ground game with 107 yards on 12 carries, scored the first Happy touchdown in the first quarter on a 70 yard run.

Frost chalked up another marker in the fourth period on a one-yard push, and Don Maynard flipped a 12 yard pass to Joe Bill Dempsey for the other Poke score. Dean Bryan ran for two points after the final touchdown.

Maynard completed two of four passes for 24 yards and one touchdown. Bryan carried 10 times for 57 yards.

Defensively, the Cowboys were led by Frost, Bryan, and Jackie Schiller. Bryan has 18 tackles, Frost 12, and Schiller 11.

Vega's win gave them a perfect 5-0 district record and the District 1-B championship. Happy closed with a 3-1-1 loop mark to finish in second place.

Coaches of the district meet the Wednesday after Thanksgiving to select the all-district teams.

Eagles Lose Final Game To Tulia Team

BY JON LOW

The 1967 season is over for the Canyon Eagles, and it ended almost as it began.

The Eagles closed out the year with a 2-8 record, crumbling under a Tulia Hornet aerial bombardment and losing 60-0 Friday night in Tulia.

Hornet quarterback Ricky Landers triggered the Tulia win by riddling the Eagle defense for 372 yards on 12 of 15 passes, while sub passer Steve McCullough fired for 123 more on five of eight to give the Hornets 495 yards in the air and a total offense of 610 yards.

The Hornet who ended up with most of those passes was 6-5 end Mike McCullough, Steve's twin, who gathered in seven passes and romped for 248 yards and three touchdowns.

Canyon's biggest scoring threat came in the late minutes of the first half, when the Eagles drove for a first and goal on the Hornet five yard line after taking over on downs at their own 46. A loss, a penalty, and an incomplete pass brought up third down back on the 11, from where quarterback Lon Conner was dumped for a 14 yard loss on a scramble that failed to locate Phil Swatzell, who was standing all alone in the end zone. On fourth down, by this time at the 25, Conner's pass attempt was intercepted.

The Eagles had moved to a first and goal at the five on a four yard pass from Conner to Jim McBroom, four runs for 14 yards by Swatzell, a 15 yard personal foul penalty against Tulia, and a 16 yard run by Conner.

Later Canyon reached the Hornet 14, but a pass interception also ended that drive.

Interceptions plagued Canyon constantly, as the Eagles yielded seven of them. Canyon gave up possession 14 times in all, seven times on interceptions, twice on fumbles, twice on downs, and once on a punt.

Swatzell was the Eagles' leading rusher with 61 hard earned yards on 20 carries. David Erwin's 17 yards on four carries was the team's next highest total. David Thompson, who rampaged for 124 yards against Muleshoe last week, carried only once and was held to no gain.

Tony Gibson took over at quarterback from Conner and picked up 94 yards with his passing. Gibson's passes seemed destined to be caught by someone, as only one of his ten attempts was incomplete. Five were caught by Eagle receivers, but four found their way into the hands of Tulia interceptors. Conner hit two of eight and coughed up two interceptions, while Erwin yielded another misfire on a halfback pass.

Gibson, a fiery 135 pound senior playing his last game, directed the Eagles with a great deal of dedication despite the fact that he was relatively new at quarterback. He threw four times to Conner for 64 yards.

Canyon had identical totals running and passing of 101 yards, for a total offense of 202 yards. The Eagles gained 12 first downs while giving up 20.

Tulia's lead at the quarters were 13-0, 26-0, 34-0, and 60-0.

Mike McCullough's touchdowns covered 52, 25, and 65 yards. The six remaining scores were scored by different individuals.

Jaycees Lose Basketball Game 73-37

The Canyon Jaycee basketball team was whalloped 73-37 by a basketball team composed of coaches for the Canyon Public Schools Tuesday night.

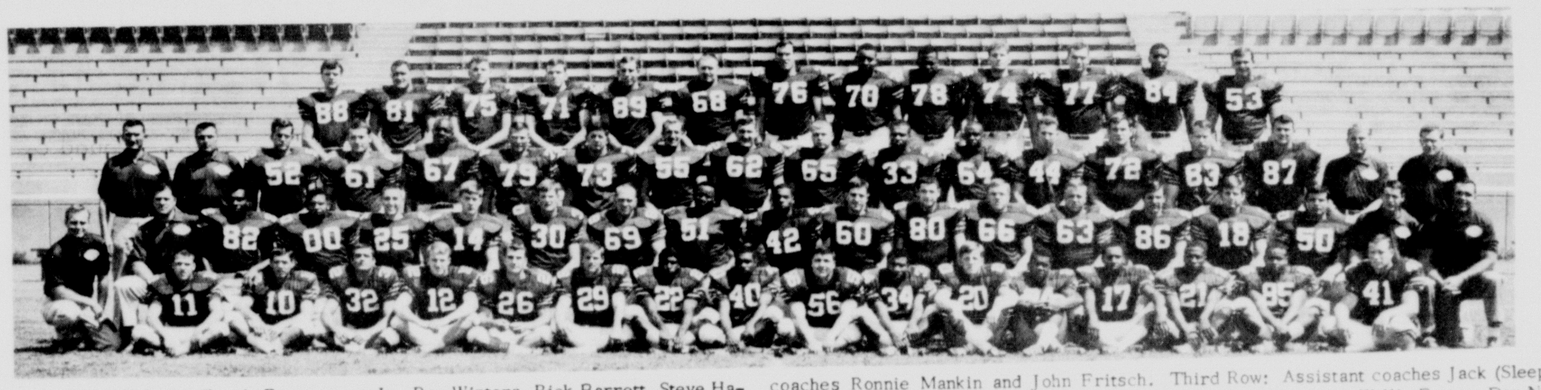

The Jaycee team trailed by only four points at the half, 25-29, according to Delbert Turk, president.

CHS gymnasium was the site for the game with all proceeds going to the Canyon Eagle Booster Club.

Trusty Escapes, Captured

A Randall County trusty, evidently unhappy with his surroundings, walked away from the jail here last week, but was apprended less than an hour later in Amarillo.

The trusty, Leonard Claude Duncan, 45, general delivery Hereford, apparently walked away from the jail here sometime between 5:30 and 6 a.m. and was apprehended by Deputy Al Smithers as he stepped from a freight train near 34th St. and Grand in Amarillo.

The night dispatcher had released Duncan and another trusty to allow them to begin their daily tasks of cleaning the annex. The dispatcher notified Sheriff L. S. (Slim) Johnston that he could not find Duncan and the county-wide search began.

Duncan, who lost his trusty status because of the escape, was sentenced Oct. 28 in Randall County Court to four months in jail and a fine of $92. He was charged with driving while intoxicated. As a trusty, he was receiving credit for two days for every one spent in jail here.

The incident marks the third time in 16 years that a trusty has walked away from the jail here, Johnston said.

SPEECH THERAPY CLINICIAN, Mrs. Rosa Cowart, instructs many youngsters daily at the Gene Howe and Rex Reeves Elementary schools. Reveiving help with speech problems is Jim Slack, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Slack and Kelly Irlbeck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Irlbeck. There are 110 non-retarded children participating in the speech therapy program.

Mrs. Cowart Is Clinician

Speech Therapy Class Aids School Children

BY WAYNE BOARD

While many teachers lament the question of why Johnny can't read, Rosa Cowart is concerned with why Johnny-- and many more youngsters like him--can't speak properly.

Mrs. Cowart is conducting speech therapy classes for non-retarded students at Rex Reeves and Gene Howe Elementary schools here to determine why certain children in the lower grades fail to maintain about the same educational level as their classmates and what can be accomplished to correct the defects.

With a total of 76 first through third graders at Rex Reeves and 34 first through sixth graders at Gene Howe in her charge, Mrs. Cowart is constantly on the move, both with student instruction and parent conferences.

The conferences, she relates, are as important as the classroom work because if the youngster's parents fail to help with proper training in the home, all is for naught.

After conferring with lower grade teachers at the beginning of the year, Mrs. Cowart is able to contact those parents with children that were felt to need assistance beyond that which they would normally receive in the classroom with other youngsters.

As an example of how parents seem to react to the speech therapy classes, Mrs. Cowart noted that all but three of those contacted this year favored the specialized program.

To keep in constant contact with the parents, Mrs. Cowart schedules conferences each Friday afternoon and frequently visits in the youngster's home to obtain a better overall picture of the child.

"You need," she explained, "to see what the child's home-life is and how he is accepted and if there are older or younger brothers and sisters. Many of the things you learn from visiting the home can't be found on the child's permanent record card in the office."

As for the actual classroom instruction, two divergent theories are prevalent. One theory is that the child should be instructed in speech therapy daily for a nine-week period, while the other lauds the idea that the youngsters should be taught twice weekly for a one school-year stint. Mrs. Cowart follows both.

This year, she explained, an accellerated speech course is being taught daily for two classes of first graders in order to determine if once corrected, speech problems can be cured by constant practice over a relatively short period of time.

In addition to the accellerated course, the clinician conducts sessions twice weekly for the other children. Each class Mrs. Cowart maintains has from four to eight youngsters.

"I would like to limit the classes to six students," she noted, "because of working closer with the children, but I'm the only therapist in the system."

The Special Education Act of 1942 pays a majority of the salary of a speech therapy instructor if there are a minimum of 60 youngsters who are tested and found to need the help. Mrs. Cowart lacks 10 students having twice the number set by the act of 1942.

The Canyon school system pays about $500 per year toward Mrs. Cowart's salary, plus $500 budgeted for equipment and supplies.

Superintendent Jerry Jacobs said the school could probably receive approval for an additional clinician when the number of students needing therapy merited such a move.

"Apparently the operation of the unit is real successful," Jacobs commented. Through scheduling it seems we are doing a real good job in meeting the needs of the students."

For last year overall in the two units of the system, Mrs. Cowart had 143 students in the therapy program. Very few of her students last year needed to return for additional speech therapy this year.

Once inside Mrs. Cowart's instructional domain, aptly designated by a sign on the door as "The Good Speech Room", each student undergoes both physical and mental limbering exercises.

Just inside the door of the room are small mis-matched red and green colored squares. Each child entering the room places his right foot on a red square and the left on a green square as he walks a distance of some 12 feet.

Criss-crossing his legs as the student moves forward gives the therapist an idea of the youngster's eye-foot coordination and also helps instill a knowledge of which is the left and which is the right foot.

The students then walk to their desks, deposit books and return to the center of the room where they are required to bend down and touch their toes six times. Many cannot master this simple exercise, the clinician stated, because of poor coordination--poor coordination that may contribute to a speech defect.

A variety of simple blackboard exercises are practiced as well as reading lessons. The reading lessons help the student practice on words that are difficult for them to pronounce. The letters "r" and "s" are the most difficult for most speech therapy students to pronounce.

"It's like the old joke about the boy and father riding along when they see an automobile accident," she said. "The boy says, 'Look Daddy, see the weck', and father says, 'Son, that's not a weck, that's a weck'. Many parents don't notice speech defects in their youngsters because they themselves have the same problems."

Of all the students in Mrs. Cowart's charge, an estimated 85 per cent of them have articulation problems. This articulation defect, she explained, involves the substitution of a speech sound or any noise for an accepted sound; sounds left out of words; sounds may all be present and approximatley correct, but sometimes may be done sloppily and indistinctly; or sounds or noises may be added to words.

Some students, testing has determined, have problems that involve the quality, loudness or pitch of the voice. Although it might seem so, many students are not shy, but actually have a speech problem.

Other problem areas may involve the teeth, or various difficulties with proper rhythm in speaking. The rhythm problems may involve cluttering, pitch patterns, breath grouping or stuttering.

One fourth grade youngster last year, she noted, did have the problem of stuttering on most of his words.

Through careful examination of the child for about six weeks before therapy sessions began, Mrs. Cowart was able to determine that the boy was dominently right, except that he wrote with his left hand.

"We found," she stated, "that his mother was a waitress and would sit across from him writing and helping with his homework. Observing his mother write, the boy carefully followed her example and while she was writing with her right hand, he was writing with his left."

Through the use of a disconnected telephone, the boy was able to hear his speaking mistakes almost immediately and thus correct them.

"He is now in the fifth grade this year," Mrs. Cowart said, "and his stuttering has almost stopped. Through the use of the telephone he is able to read page after page of text without stuttering once."

The problem of stuttering, as in so many other cases, is emotional and involves the repetition of sounds, syllables and words, and the blocking of speech usually accompanied by muscle tension and emotional strain, the clinician pointed out.

Mrs. Cowart holds membership in the Texas Speech and Hearing Association and Amarillo Speech Therapy Teachers to keep current on her subject.

Mrs. Cowart received a bachelor of science degree in biology at West Texas State University and as she could not get a masters degree in science, decided to incorporate all her interests with a masters of arts degree in speech.

As for the need for speech therapy, Mrs. Cowart noted that youngsters today do not seem as coordinated as in the past, primarily due to the ways in which they entertain themselves.

"In speech, we use the fine motor processes. It has been proven that gross motor processes need to be developed along with the fine. If students lack gross motor control, they may also lack the fine motor processes," she said.

Just because a youngster may not have the proper body image that will help him to determine "where he is in space", does not mean he is mentally retarded, she stressed.

Having a speech problem will affect a child's position in his own peer group.

"Through the speech therapy program," the clinician concluded, "we can help him in physical and social adjustments that will carry on to better classroom work."

New-Look Buffs Take To Courts

West Texas State University basketball has undergone a face-lifting.

With two new coaches, new players, a new offense, and even new uniforms, the Buffs have made a streamlined approach to improve last year's 1-18 record.

Under the direction of new head coach Dennis Walling and his first year assistant Les Pollock, the Buffs have enjoyed a banner recruiting year in the short span of four months.

The new Buff mentors are expecting solid support from four promising junior college transfers, five returning lettermen from last year's team, and five promising sophomores.

Foremost among the returning lettermen is Mike Mitchell, a 6-2 guard from Roswell, N.M. As a sophomore last season, Mitchell led Buff scorers with 18.9 scoring average. He also meshed .829 percent of his free throws to help boost the Buffs to a national first in free throw accuracy.

Joining Mitchell in the backcourt will be either Lonnie Speck, a talented transfer from Dallas Baptist, improved junior letterman Val Franklin, or junior college transfer Gale Rhine, a fine outside shooter. Sophomores David Cole and Mike Horton are also expected to contend for the three starting outside slots.

Other big men in Walling's 1967-68 plans include returning letterman David Nowlin, a 6-5 jumping jack forward, transfers Maurice (Mo) Savage (6-9), and Jeff Rowles (6-5), 6-10 John Burkhalter, and 6-7 Simmy Hill. Other help could also come from junior Jim Nielson and sophomores Mike Kimmins and Ricky Bacon.

Brookfield is the son of former West Texas State All-American Price Brookfield, who scored 1406 points in his playing career at West Texas.

Stomper Coach Lonnie Nichols' freshmen will face a 15 game schedule, featuring home-and-home contests with the Texas Tech freshmen and the powerful Cameron Junior College Aggies of Lawton, Okla. Tipoff for all freshman games is set for 6 p.m.

The three scholarship players are 6-5 forward Pratt Lyons, a schoolboy teammate of Wesley Unseld at Louisville, Ky., Sammy James, a 6-4 guard from El Paso, and Bill Brookfield, a 6-2 guard from Indianapolis, Ind.

Statistics Are Listed

The West Texas State Buffaloes will take an impressive array of national statistics with them when they go against San Fernando Valley State College in the Junior Rose Bowl on Dec. 2.

Coach Joe Kerbel's Herd is second nationally team rushing and fifth in team total offense. Steve Haterius, Eugene Morris, and Curley Watters head up an outstanding list of individuals that placed highly on the statistical charts released by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau.

Haterius remained atop the pass interceptors with 11, two ahead of his nearest rival, who has another game to go.

Morris is second in rushing with 1274 yards, tied for seventh in scoring with 72 points, and has enough total offense to rank respectably in that category, although he was not listed.

Watters is listed third in kickoff returns with 460 yards.

Hugh Sanders Favorite Prof At BSU Event

Hugh Sanders was presented with a plaque as favorite professor at the thirteenth annual Favorite Professor's Breakfast held Tuesday at the Baptist Student Union on the campus of West Texas State University.

HUGH SANDERS

Sanders is director for the University Chorus and is a voice instructor in the WT Music Department.

Approximately 100 were present for the event as Dr. Leon McBeth, professor of church history at Southwestern Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, gave the message entitled "What is Going on in Religion".

The invocation was given by Rev. Strauss Atkinson, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Canyon. Hugh Sanders led the song "We Gather Together" and Mike Miller, BSU president, was in charge of the welcome and award presentation. Dr. James P. Cornette, university president, gave the benediction.

CHS Girl Cagers Strong Contenders

After making good showings in two games, the Canyon High School girls' basketball team is looking down the road of the 1967-68 season that will take them through 19 games and three tournaments. The outlook is for an inexperienced but hustling team that could jell into strong contender.

Canyon opened the season with a pair of losses to Vega, a team that made the state playoffs last year. "Despite the losses, I was not displeased," said Coach Bob Schneider.

Schneider's team has shown considerable hustle in trying to make up for a lack of experience. Only one senior returns from last year's team, guard Gayle Swatzell. The remainder of the team is made up of six juniors and seven sophomores.

Heading up the list of returnees are cousins Gayle and Susan Swatzell, who won second team all-district honors last year at opposite ends of the court. Gayle is a senior guard and Susan is a junior forward.

Junior Pam Richardson and soph Jan Sternenberg round out the offensive starters. Richardson has shown rapid improvement at a new position, post forward, while Sternenberg is "improving every game," according to Schneider. Susan Swatzell is a sharp ball handler and outside shooter.

Completing the defensive starters are junior Beverly Brown and sophomore Cheryl Davis. Brown has been the team's leading rebounder to date, and has graded the highest on defense. Gayle Swatzell, doing her usual steady job, turned in one of her best games against Vega, Schneider reported. Cheryl Davis may see action both ways, but has started on defense. "She is one of the finest hustlers we have, and in a little time should be really tough at guard or forward," appraised Schneider.

Pushing for starting shots at forwards are sophs Linda Lehman and Judy Davis.

Defensive reserves are juniors Janice Allen, Rhonda Riley, and Debbie Vaughan, and sophomores Jenna Thompson, Linda Dudenhoeffer, and Margaret Patterson. "They are all doing well," commended Schneider, "and their competitive attitude is really helping all of us."

Offensively Canyon is expected to go with variations of a low post attack, while the defense is already stronger than expected.

Canyon Wins Two Games

Both Canyon High School 'A' and 'B' girls basketball teams came out with wins over lasses from Nazareth Tuesday night.

The 'B' team trounced their Nazareth opponents 74 to 10 and the first string from Canyon took their contest 49 to 29.

In the 'A' clash, Pam Richardson scored 25 points and Suzan Swatzell dropped in 14 markers to lead the Eagles on to victory.

Coach Bob Schneider credited Sheryl Davis and Linda Dudenhoeffer, both guards, as having turned in "good" performances.

Pinky Woodward scored 25 points in the 'B' clash, Schneider reported, and all forwards were able to score.

The coach gave special recognition to Miss Woodward, Carolyn Podzemny and Cindy Jones for outstanding performances in the contest.

"We looked much better offensively," the coach stated. "We're beginning to jell and our timing is better."

Canyon's next clash will be in Wellington Tuesday evening.

Westside 4-H Club Meets

Westside 4-H Club met recently with Linda Hales in charge of the business session.

The group decided to make gifts to exchange during a Christmas party. Glenda Hollenstein and Connie Brazzil are in charge of games for the social.

History Books Come Alive For Goodmans During Trip

"This trip made history books come to life," said Mr. and Mrs. A.K. Goodman after returning recently from a 10,000 mile trip during which they toured the New England States and parts of Canada.

The Goodmans, who left Canyon August 30, were gone on their trip for an extended nine weeks. From here they travelled through Colorado, Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois, Wisconsin, Indiana, Ohio and New York.

"Our first real sightseeing began at Niagara Falls...where we saw the falls by day and by night," said Mrs. Goodman. Later, the couple travelled into the Catskill Mountains in New York where they were "amazed at the beauty and color of the changing Maple leaves".

Travelling into Canada, the Goodmans stopped at Expo '67 in Montreal for several days where they had a "by-chance" meeting with a former student. Dr. Gene Hill of Platsmouth, New York.

MR. AND MRS. A.K. GOODMAN

Both Goodmans are retired teachers. They have been travel fans since about 1937. Mrs. Goodman retired early from her teaching duties at Rex Reeves Elementary School last spring so that the couple could make an extended fall tour of the Eastern Seaboard.

"In travelling, you talk with strangers and due to this we also became acquainted with Mrs. Arthur Barsh, who is a sister of Mrs. Bob Anderson of Canyon, while we were in Canada," recalled Mrs. Goodman.

"We saw the 'Walled City of Quebec'. We viewed many museums and old churches during our visit," said Mrs. Goodman.

Returning to the United States, the couple travelled the rugged coastline of Maine and visited in New Hampshire, Vermont and Massachusetts.

"History of the Revolutionary War came to life as we visited the Sleepy Hollow Cemetery in Concord, Mass.," said Mrs. Goodman. "We saw graves of such historical figures as Ralph Waldo Emerson, Louisa Mae Alcott and David Thoreau."

The couple also saw the bridge where the Revolutionary War was begun with a "shot heard round the world", according to Mr. Goodman.

"In Boston, we took the Freedom Trail," said Mr. Goodman. "The trail is marked with a red line in the center of the sidewalk, and you surely will not see it all unless you follow the marked trail."

"We began the tour of the Freedom Trail at the North Church and ended at the Commons, which is a park," said Mr. Goodman. "We saw many things including Paul Revere's home, the State House, and Benjamin Franklin's home on that tour."

At Plymouth, the Goodman's saw "The Rock" and a reconstructed version of the Mayflower. They agreed that the Mayflower was very realistic and was prepared with a scene of wax figures drawing up the Mayflower Compact.

"Would you believe," said Mrs. Goodman, "that they only allowed a 7 1/2 feet by 2 feet space for each person that made the two month voyage to America."

"We visited several cemeteries and burial grounds where we read the names of persons out of the history books. It made history come to life for us," exclaimed the Goodmans.

The Goodmans spent eight days in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and "did just about everything". Independence Hall and the reconstructed City Hall were among a few of the sights seen in Philadelphia.

"In Philadelphia," said Mr. Goodman, "they are reconstructing many of the old buildings and historic spots are being renovated there."

Later, the Goodmans went to Lancaster, Pa., which is about 70 miles from Philadelphia, to tour the unusual Amish Country for a day.

"The Amish Country is the richest agricultural county in the United States, even though they have no electricity and very little equipment. Their students go to school only through the eighth grade and teachers are of the same sect. Women of the Amish descent wear long black dresses and black bonnets," explained the Goodmans.

Returning to Washington D. C., the Goodmans took a special tour of the White House. They also spent one full day touring the Smithsonian Institute.

Throughout their travels, the Goodmans visited with several former students and relatives.

The Goodmans took the Skyline Drive through the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia and stopped in Elizabethton where they visited with former Canyon residents, the Karl Sharps.

"Anything historical that we didn't see," said Goodman, "was just because we didn't know it was there."

"For instance," added Mrs. Goodman, "we spent two hours looking for the 'Old Man of the Mountain' simply because we knew it was somewhere in the vicinity...and come to find out it was on a different road, so we went there."

"It took us nine weeks of travel but we will have years of pleasure from the trip," said Mrs. Goodman explaining that they plan to fix a scrapbook of the trip from postcards, programs and other momentoes collected.

Crossties On Tracks

Local authorities are searching for some one who placed crossties on a Santa Fe railroad just north of Canyon's city limits last Wednesday night.

A west-bound freight struck one of the ties, knocking it about 30 yards. The train conductor noticed another crosstie on an east-bound track and notified authorities.

The ties were placed on the tracks sometime between 7:53 p.m. and 8:20 p.m., officers said.

The meeting is only one of several scheduled in the state from Nov. 27 to Dec. 12 in cities with major production of beets and an adequate labor supply.
